

Church of the Holy Communion, the Rev. George D. Sparks.

An enjoyable entertainment was given in Masonic Hall on Thursday evening by the Hillside Council of the Royal Arcanum.

The Rev. Phoebe Hanniford, ex-President of Sorosis of New-York, lectured on "The Coming Woman" to a fashionable audience at the house of Mrs. Thomas N. Bolles in Evergreen Place, East Orange, on Wednesday afternoon, for the benefit of the Orange Free Library.

An oyster supper was given at the Washington Street Baptist Church on Wednesday evening by the Ladies' Aid Society.

An enjoyable Martha Washington supper was given on Wednesday evening in the chapel of the First Methodist Episcopal Church by members of the Ladies' Aid Society.

An entertaining meeting of the Fortnightly Club was held on Wednesday afternoon at the Orange Clubhouse. "German Literature" was the theme discussed.

Mrs. Charles Hathaway gave a delightful reception at her home, in Winans Street, East Orange, on Tuesday.

A pleasant luncheon sociable was held on Wednesday evening by the Llewellyn Sons of Temperance, in the Centre Street Hall.

Miss Grace Clifford of Boston, formerly of East Orange, gave a most entertaining and delightful dramatic recital in Commonwealth Hall on Monday evening, with the assistance of Mrs. A. Douglass Brownlie, soprano, and Miss Marion Hopper, pianist. Miss Clifford's best selections were her first and last, the former, "A Prodigal Son," being especially arranged for her by Richard Harding Davis, and the other being "Sleep," the walking scene from "Macbeth," in which she appeared in costume to great advantage. The patronesses were Mrs. James M. Ludlow, Mrs. David S. Walton, Mrs. Edgar Williams, Mrs. William Johnson, Mrs. Charles S. Menagh, Mrs. Edward M. Colie, Mrs. Gardner Colby, Mrs. Robert Ward, Mrs. Amos C. Van Gaasbeck, and Jerome H. Gedney.

An exhibition will be given in Music Hall on Thursday evening, March 12, by the Orange Camera Club.

The art loan exhibition, to be given on March 16, 17, and 18, for the benefit of the Training School for Servants, will probably be a great success. One of the side attractions will be the drawing for a lady's Orient bicycle.

The postponed ball of the St. Patrick's Alliance, Branch 2, District 5, of Orange Valley, will be held on April 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hathaway of East Orange have gone South.

Miss Jenkins of Main and Grove Streets, East Orange, is visiting in New-England.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Decker and Miss Decker have gone South to Savannah and the Bahama Islands.

Mrs. Seymour McCullagh, the Misses McCullagh, and George McCullagh of East Orange will sail for Europe in April.

Mrs. Frank L. Kellogg and Miss Kellogg of Harrison Street are in Washington.

William H. Henderson of High Street has gone to Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman F. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Kelsey are in Washington.

Arthur C. Zimmerman is back from Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Sloane of Halsted Street have gone to Washington and Old Point Comfort.

Miss Josephine Kirtland of East Orange is back from Boston and Providence.

Mrs. Frank H. Johnson of Corning, N. Y., is the guest of Mrs. E. P. Van Wagenen of Scotland Street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Philip Rafferty of South Orange have gone to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. David Valentine of East Orange are in New-York for the rest of the winter.

Mrs. W. R. Noe and Harold Noe of East Orange have gone to Florida.

Miss Julia Adams of High Street is in Washington.

The engagement is announced of Miss Amelie Vanderkief and Allen Church of South Orange.

Miss Ella Nilson of Philadelphia is the guest of Mrs. John Dallet of Prospect Street.

Mrs. Samuel Lee and Miss Rlice Lee will sail for Europe in April.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. La Pierre of Walnut Street have sailed for Europe.

Christopher Hiller of Dodd Street has sailed for Europe.

The engagement is announced of Miss Mary Oberteuffer of Ridgewood, N. J., and Anthony Schuyler, Jr., of Orange.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Dyer of Montrose are in Chelsea, Mass.

Miss Clara Watson of West Orange is in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Clark, Miss Clark, and L. Stowell Clark of Montrose have sailed for Genoa.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bryden of South Orange have sailed for Scotland.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grindley of London are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Taylor of Highland Avenue.

Edward E. Clapp has sailed for Bermuda.

Miss Katherine Henry of Washington Street is at Fall River, Mass.

Mrs. William F. Zimmermann, Miss Eleanor Zimmermann, and Howard Zimmermann have sailed for Naples.

Mrs. Frederick W. Van Wagenen and children are in Charleston, S. C.

Miss Margaret Yardley of East Orange is in Philadelphia.

Fritz Trepkau and James J. Haag will sail for Germany in May.

The Charlotte Emerson Brown Club has elected Mrs. E. V. Maghee President, Mrs. G. C. Ainslee Vice President, Mrs. Henry Atwater Second Vice President, Miss Mary L. Adams Recording Secretary, Miss Mary Piercy Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. O. E. Condit Treasurer, and Mrs. Eggleston Auditor.

The Hotch Potch Club of South Orange has chosen Miss M. Bartholomew President, Miss Florence L. Smith Vice President, and Miss M. I. Gaudineer Secretary-Treasurer.

Charles T. Kilborne has been elected President of the Young Men's Christian Association, Arthur W. Brigham Vice President, George F. Seely Treasurer, and David G. Holmes Recording Secretary.

SOCIAL LIFE IN THE ORANGES.

What Society Is Doing During Lent—Some Engagements Announced.

ORANGE, N. J., Feb. 29.—Miss Taylor of Highland Avenue gave a very pleasant whist party at her home to-night.

Mrs. Joseph W. Spencer, the Misses Spencer, and Mrs. William Fry gave a charming tea at their home in Evergreen Place, East Orange, on Thursday afternoon.

The first of the series of lectures arranged by the Men's Club of the First Presbyterian Church of South Orange was given on Thursday evening, when the Rev. Dr. George L. Spinning, the pastor, spoke on "Abraham Lincoln, the Martyr President."

Lenten lectures were delivered in the various Episcopal Churches on Thursday evening as follows: Grace Church, the Rev. Henry Lubeck of Zion and St. Timothy Church, New-York; Christ Church, the Rev. Dr. J. W. Brown of St. Thomas's Church, New-York; St. Paul's, the Rev. Dr. George M. Christman of Grace Church, Newark;