

SEIZES THREE-DECK STILL.

Orange, N. J., Police Chief Raids Barn Opposite Y. M. C. A.

ORANGE, N. J., Dec. 20.—Police Captain Ryan, appointed some time ago and ordered to "clean up" the city, made a raid tonight and confiscated what is known as "a triple decker" still, four barrels of mash, two barrels of whisky and ingredients, and a smaller still.

The contraband was found in a barn at the rear of the home of Rabbi David Amsterdam at 182 South Main Street, and directly opposite the Y. M. C. A. Building.

The New York Times

Published: December 21, 1922

Copyright © The New York Times